

Berlin

Training Tour

We are committed to ensuring every new Group Leader is fully prepared to lead an EF Educational Tour with their students. Our training tour program includes online, classroom, and experiential learning components, which are facilitated by EF staff, EF Tour Directors, and Global Education Ambassadors from across the United States. The combination of a simulated tour experience and classroom learnings will provide Group Leaders with all the tools, practice, and knowledge necessary to be confident and organized when they travel with their own students.

Berlin Training Tour

5 Days

Key Learnings:

- Experience international travel while considering how to navigate the airport with your group.
- Familiarize yourself with the pace of a student tour.
- Discuss safety on tour as it applies to your role as a Group Leader
- Gain a better understand of EF's worldwide presence and approach to safety
- Learn how to safely move as a large group in a major city
- Understand how to set expectations and provide structure during free time on tour
- Practice reflection exercises to connect on-tour learning with classroom lessons
- Collaborate with fellow educators and staff on EF's Learning Outcomes

Day 1 |

Fly overnight to Germany

Day 2 | D

Arrive in Berlin: Welcome to the capital of reunified Germany. At the airport, you will be greeted by your Tour Director and EF staff, who will remain with you for the duration of the tour. Your hotel will likely not be ready for check-in, so you will store your luggage there before heading into the city.

Walking tour of Berlin: Hit the ground running as your Tour Director shows you some of the city's most famous sites such as the Unter den Linden and the Reichstag, Germany's Parliament.

Welcome dinner: Become acquainted with your colleagues, experienced EF Group Leaders, and EF staff members as you enjoy a typical on-tour meal.

Day 3 | B

Training seminar one: This collaborative session offers the opportunity to hear from EF staff and experienced Group Leaders about the on-tour experience with EF. In a panel discussion, we will review best practices surrounding safety, group management, student engagement, and various Group Leader responsibilities on tour. You'll also learn about on-tour reflection exercises, which can be brought back to your classroom.

Itinerary continued

Guided sightseeing of Berlin: Gain firsthand understanding of the value of expert local guides as you explore cultural and historical highlights on a panoramic tour of Berlin—including Checkpoint Charlie and Brandenburg Gate, which was once the symbol of the Cold War and now the symbol of a reunited Berlin.

Visit the Topography of Terror museum: Revisit Nazi regime at this former documentation center, built on the grounds of the Gestapo and SS headquarters.

Free evening in Berlin: Make new discoveries of your own in Germany's capital. Explore the bustling city streets and experience savory dishes and cultural sites.

Day 4 | BD

Training seminar two: During this session, collaborate with new and experienced Group Leaders on different ways to ensure your students have positive physical journeys while traveling, but also meaningful personal growth. Discuss a range of important pre-tour topics, such as curricular alignment, successful recruiting strategies, student-driven learning, building your travel team, and creating a global education plan.

Guided excursion to Potsdam: Visit Potsdam, where American, British, and Soviet leaders drew up plans for the post-war administration of Germany at the Potsdam Conference in 1945.

Farewell dinner: Reflect on what you've learned in Berlin at tonight's farewell dinner.

Day 5 | B

Your Tour Director will facilitate your transport to the airport, where you will check in for your return flight home.

*Itinerary subject to change.
Accommodations and flight details to be announced approximately 14 days prior to departure.*

"This experience has truly given me not just the tools, but also the confidence that leading a student group requires."
