Taormina

Perched high above the sea on the side of Mont Tauro, Taormina offers spectacular vistas of Sicily's eastern coastline. An expert local guide introduces you to this scenic town, where you'll visit the piazza to see The Church of San Nicola, built around 1400 atop the ruins of an ancient church. The Church of San Nicola is sometimes called "the fortress cathedral," since its imposing medieval façade resembles a castle. See the 15th-century Palazzo Corvaia, which once housed the Sicilian Parliament of Nobles. Then, make your way to the town's 3rd-century Greek theater, a venue that continues to host summer performances today.

Pompeii and Capri

History and stunning natural scenery come together as you explore the Sorrento region. On your guided tour of Pompeii, see how the wealthiest ancient Romans lived—the artifacts they left behind make this one of the richest archaeological sites in the world. After sightseeing on the island of Capri, board a cruise and enjoy picturesque views of the Amalfi coastline. You'll see the Arco Naturale, a majestic stone arch on the eastern cliffs, and the famous Faraglioni, three enormous, pale-ochre limestone colossi that loom out of the sea. In Sorrento, mild weather and fragrant lemon groves set against the backdrop of the Bay of Naples will welcome you.

Rome

No place integrates its past into the present quite like Rome, where history comes to life. Explore the world's most famous arena on your sightseeing tour to the Colosseum. Here, you can almost hear the stamping feet of the crowds gathered for gladiatorial combat. Nearby, the Roman Forum marks the former heart of the Roman Empire. Julius Caesar gave many of his great political speeches there. On your visit to Vatican City, marvel at Michelangelo's breathtaking ceiling in the Sistine Chapel and look out for the colorful uniforms of the Swiss Guard, protectors of Vatican City. Before you say "arrivederci," toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain to ensure a return trip to the Eternal City.
