@Eftours I attribute my college semester abroad to the love for travel I discovered on an EF Tour in high school #traveltuesday

What you'll experience on your tour

Day 1: Fly overnight to England

Day 2: London

- Meet your Tour Director at the airport in London, a city of 8 million people that has become one of the world's great melting pots while maintaining a distinct character that's all its own. From the London Bridge to the Houses of Parliament, Great Britain's royal tradition and rich history greet you at every turn. During your visit admire architectural marvels like the Baroque domes and spires of St. Paul's Cathedral, the 17th-century church designed by Sir Christopher Wren. Check out the lively five-way intersection at Piccadilly Circus as well as Hyde Park's urban greenery. You may even get a chance to witness the ceremonial Changing of the Guard. And don't forget to snap a picture of Big Ben from the banks of the River Thames.
- Take a walking tour of London: The Strand; Trafalgar Square; Leicester Square; Covent Garden

Day 3: London

- Take an expertly guided tour of London: Big Ben and Houses of Parliament; Piccadilly Circus; St. Paul's Cathedral; Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace (if scheduled)
- Time to see more of London or
 - Visit Windsor Castle
- Attend an evening theater performance

Day 4: London

- Take a backstage tour at the National Theatre. Located on the South Bank overlooking the Thames, the National Theatre is one of the United Kingdom's most celebrated publicly funded theater companies. On your tour, discover what goes into a major production. Follow your guide as you go backstage and explore the National Theatre's three auditoriums: the Olivier, Lyttelton and the Cottesloe. Visit set designer workshops and watch sparks and sawdust fly as metalworkers and carpenters come together to transform the stage into new worlds. You may even see some of the cast rehearsing and get a sneak peek at an upcoming performance.
- Enjoy an authentic fish and chips dinner

Day 5: London

- Full day to see more of London or
 - Visit Stratford: Shakespeare's Birthplace; Gardens at Anne Hathaway's Cottage
- Attend an evening theater performance

Day 6: London

- Visit the Globe Theatre. Imagine London in 1599: Queen Elizabeth I reigned, William Shakespeare was the master of the quill and the Globe Theatre opened its doors to the public. While the original Globe went up in flames during a performance, the new Globe Theatre is a modern-day replica, built just 250 yards from the original site. Take a tour of this theater in the round and imagine being packed in with a crowd 3,000 strong, watching a first-run Shakespeare play. The antics of the Globe's rowdy spectators rival those of arena rock show audiences; theatergoers were known to hurl rotten food at onstage villains. During your interactive lecture, delve into the inner workings of the playhouse and the history of Shakespeare's theater company.
- Enjoy free time at Borough Market

The week I spent in England was one of the best in my life. I saw things I never imagined I would or could. The Tower of London is mind-boggling because you get to walk the ground on which kings and queens have walked on. There are the iconic spots that everyone wants to see like Big Ben, the London Eye, and Buckingham Palace

As a parent I am very grateful that I was able to give this opportunity to my child. It was worth every penny to see her smiling face in the pictures on the trip. Encourage your child to embrace the moment; be open to new cultures, foods, and just a new way of life and looking at things.
