

Educational Tours

ME TO WE'S RULES OF THE ROAD

When you enrolled on your Service Learning Tour operated by Me to We Ltd., you agreed to adhere to Me to We's Rules of the Road.

If you do not conform to the following Rules of the Road regulations, you will be sent home at the expense of your parents/legal guardians and will not be permitted to participate in any future Me to We Trips program.

- Me to We Trips is committed to providing drug, alcohol and tobacco free programs. As such, no participant may use illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia (or narcotics considered illegal in the United States of America, including marijuana), use prescription drugs illegally, consume alcohol or smoke/chew tobacco.
- Me to We Trips forbids sexual activity. As such, no participant may engage in sexual activity (including mouth-to-mouth kissing, touching, intercourse) with any other participant, junior/assistant Facilitator, staff member, staff Facilitator or member of the local community (regardless of gender, age or consent). Males and females will be housed separately.
- Me to We Trips promotes and only tolerates respectful and positive relationships. As such, all participants must treat one another with respect. Participants may not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, religion, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, appearance, etc. Absolutely no harassment (be it physical, sexual or other) will be tolerated. Under no circumstances will physical violence be tolerated. No participant may at any time carry or possess a weapon. Participants are expected to use appropriate language, avoid swearing and be kind in their interactions with others.

If you do not conform to the following Rules of the Road regulations or any specific rule set by your Group Leader you will be reprimanded at the discretion of your Group Leader (which may include dismissal from the tour and returning home at the expense of your parents/legal guardians) and parents/legal guardians may be notified of the incident.

- Participants must abide by the judgment of their EF Group Leader.
- Participants must at all times abide by all rules issued by their EF Group Leader.
- Participants must not leave boundaries of the accommodations as indicated by a Facilitator except during designated times, with the express permission of a Facilitator.
- Participants must clean up after themselves and keep their living and eating areas tidy.
- Males and females must remain in separate rooms at night, unless in unforeseen circumstances where an alternative arrangement is expressly approved by a Facilitator.
- Participants must show themselves, their Facilitator and their group respect by eating and drinking enough, and getting sufficient sleep at night so that they are alert and ready to participate during the day.
- Participants are not allowed to go swimming on a Me to We Trip unless they have signed a Swimming Liability Waiver prior to trip departure.