

Your tour requires parental authorization

The country to which you are traveling requires that minors (anyone under the age of 18) present a Parental Authorization Form at the airport, indicating that the participant has permission to travel with the group. A parent or guardian must complete the form on the reverse side and have it notarized no earlier than 30 days prior to departure. The form is on the reverse side of this page or can also be downloaded by logging in to eftours.com/login.

You must take this Parental Authorization Form with you and present it to your group leader on tour. Please do not send it to EF.

Important information about the Parental Authorization Form:

The following information is from consulates regarding the Parental Authorization Form. It is important to check with the nearest consulate(s) in your area, as requirements can change. The consulate staff can also answer any questions you may have. Please note: All destinations require a passport for entry.

- If parents of a minor are married, both parents must sign the form, even if one parent is accompanying the minor.
- If parents of a minor are divorced, the legal-custody parent must sign the form, and proof of divorce must be established on the form during notarization. Proof of divorce and a Court Order showing Sole Custody must also be taken with you on tour, as it may be required at the airport. For questions, please contact your embassy.
- In the case of a deceased parent, a death certificate is required during notarization. A copy of the death certificate must also be taken with you on tour, as it may be required at the airport.
