Training Tour

We are committed to ensuring every new Group Leader is fully prepared to lead an EF Educational Tour with their students. Our training tour program includes online, classroom, and experiential learning components, which are facilitated by EF staff, EF Tour Directors, and Global Education Ambassadors from across the United States. The combination of a simulated tour experience and classroom learnings will provide Group Leaders with all the tools, practice, and knowledge necessary to be confident and organized when they travel with their own students.

Paris Training Tour

5 Days

Key Learnings:

- Experience international travel while considering how to navigate the airport with your group.
- Familiarize yourself with the pace of a student tour.
- Discuss safety on tour as it applies to your role as a Group Leader
- Gain a better understand of EF's worldwide presence and approach to safety
- Learn how to safely move as a large group in a major city
- Understand how to set expectations and provide structure during free time on tour
- Practice reflection exercises to connect on-tour learning with classroom lessons
- Collaborate with fellow educators and staff on EF's Learning Outcomes

Day 1 |

Fly overnight to France

Day 2 | D

Arrive in Paris: "Bonjour," and welcome to Paris. At the airport, you will be greeted by your Tour Director and EF staff, who will remain with you for the duration of the tour. Your hotel will likely not be ready for check-in, so you will store your luggage there before heading into the city.

Walking tour of Paris: Catch glimpses of the Conciergerie and St. Chapelle from the Pont Neuf, the oldest bridge in the city, then continue through to the Latin Quarter where you can see the impressive structure of Notre-Dame Cathedral.

Welcome dinner: Become acquainted with your colleagues, experienced EF Group Leaders, and EF staff members as you enjoy a typical on-tour meal.

Day 3 | B

Training seminar one: This collaborative session offers the opportunity to hear from EF staff and experienced Group Leaders about the on-tour experience with EF. In a panel discussion, we will review best practices surrounding safety, group management, student engagement, and various Group Leader responsibilities on tour. You'll also learn about on-tour reflection exercises, which can be brought back to your classroom.

Guided sightseeing of Paris: Take an expert-led tour of Paris, where you will see the Place de la Concorde, Champs-Élysées, the Arc de Triomphe, Les Invalides, and the Eiffel Tower.

What's included:

-  Full-time Tour Director with EF staff
-  Round-trip flights on major carriers
-  Upgraded hotel accommodations
-  Comfortable motorcoach
-  Breakfast, lunch, and dinner (BLD) included as specified per day
-  Sightseeing to select attractions

Training Tour

Itinerary continued

Free evening in Paris: Tonight, explore Paris with fellow educators. You could stroll the winding streets of Montmartre and see the famous Moulin Rouge, visit Sacré-Coeur, or you can marvel at the City of Light from atop the Eiffel Tower.

Day 4 | BD

Training seminar two: During this session, collaborate with new and experienced Group Leaders on different ways to ensure your students have positive physical journeys while traveling, but also meaningful personal growth. Discuss a range of important pre-tour topics, such as curricular alignment, successful recruiting strategies, student-driven learning, building your travel team, and creating a global education plan.

Guided visit to Versailles: Stroll through the elegantly landscaped gardens and historic Hall of Mirrors, then admire the ornate decor of the State Apartments of the Queen.

Farewell dinner: Reflect on what you've learned in Paris at tonight's farewell dinner.

Day 5 | B

Your Tour Director will facilitate your transport to the airport, where you will check in for your return flight home.

Itinerary subject to change.

Accommodations and flight details to be announced approximately 14 days prior to departure.

"This experience has truly given me not just the tools, but also the confidence that leading a student group requires."
