This insurance covers Girl Scouts in the event of on-tour medical expenses, baggage or flight delays, and emergency tour interruption, if a Girl Scout must leave a tour prematurely. Your group is also protected by our $15 million liability policy and $1 million consumer protection plan.

From the moment your plane lands, an EF Tour Director will be there to support your group and share in your travels. Your Tour Director assists you with all the logistics of your tour—from hotel check-in to sightseeing and everything in between. Our Tour Directors are experienced, knowledgeable travelers who will make your trip the best it can be.
