Florence is known for its prominent position on the Arno, and for its Duomo, whose domed top can be seen from almost anywhere in the city.

Day 1 Flight

Overnight flight to Italy • Relax as you fly across the Atlantic.

Day 2 Milan • Venice

Arrival in Milan • Touch down in Milan, fashion and finance capital of Italy. After clearing customs, you are greeted by your bilingual EF Tour Director, who will remain with you throughout your stay.

Transfer via Verona (time permitting) •

Transfer by way of Romeo and Juliet's Verona, known for its couplets and Capulets. Here, you can see the town's Roman Arena, which dates back to the 1st century. You'll also see a bronze statue of Juliet, standing below the balcony said to be the one where Juliet called to her Romeo.

Arrival in Venice • Arrive in magical Venice, home of Marco Polo.

Day 3 Venice

Guided sightseeing of Venice • Begin your tour of La Serenissima (the city's nickname meaning "the most serene") at St. Mark's Square, "the finest drawing room in Europe," according to Napoleon. Allegedly buried under the altar of the basilica are St. Mark's remains, which, in the 11th century, were smuggled out of Alexandria in a barrel of salt pork to prevent a thorough search by the city's Muslim guards. Also see the Grand Canal and the 324-foot Campanile (Bell Tower), whose steps were originally built so that a noble could ascend on horseback. Look for the clock where two bronze figures have been striking the hour for more than 500 years. Venice is also famous for its glassware—you'll see why during a glass-blowing demonstration.

Visit to Doges' Palace • Visit the grand 14th-century, pink-and-white Doges' Palace, from which mighty Venetian dukes once ruled. Here, you'll stroll over the Bridge of Sighs, connecting the palace and its prison. As they crossed the bridge, prisoners supposedly sighed with perfect sadness as they regarded their beautiful city for the last time. Casanova made a daring escape from this prison in 1756.

Day 4 Venice • Florence

Transfer to Florence • Arrive in Florence, birthplace of the Italian language, the Renaissance and opera.

Day 5 Florence

Guided sightseeing of Florence • Fall under the spell of the powerful Medici family on your guided tour. Pass the classical statues of the Piazza della Signoria, where Michelangelo's David originally stood and now the site of an impressive replica. From behind the Uffizi Palace, you will see Ponte Vecchio, one of the city's only bridges to survive WWII, and now one of its most photographed sites. The bridge provided the Medici easy access from the Pitti Palace to the Uffizi. Continue past the Chiesa di Santa Croce, final resting place of Michelangelo, Machiavelli and Galileo. Next, you will visit the Santa Maria del Fiore Cathedral, better known as the Duomo, or dome, that dominates Florence's skyline. The dome was sculptor and architect Brunelleschi's finest work, and the nearby campanile (bell tower) was designed by the painter Giotto. Look for the famous bronzed doors—Ghiberti's legendary Gates of Paradise—at the Baptistry opposite the Duomo. Later, watch artisans at work at a local leather workshop.

Optional excursion to Pisa • Opt to journey to Pisa. In the city's Field of Miracles, you'll see the 12th-century Leaning Tower, aslant ever since the third floor was built. This is where Galileo was said to have developed his laws of gravity. Be sure to visit the adjacent cathedral and baptistry, which contain exquisite marble pulpits carved in the Gothic style by Nicola and Giovanni Pisano.

Day 6 Florence • Assisi

Guided sightseeing of Assisi • Stop in Assisi, where a local guide shows you the birthplace of both St. Francis and St. Clare. Wander through this city, nestled between Mount Subasio and fields of olive groves, which draws millions of tourists every year with its religious significance and some of Italy's finest early Renaissance art. At the Basilica of St. Francis, follow the life of one of Italy's most beloved saints through Giotto's artful frescoes.

Day 7 Assisi • Sorrento

Guided sightseeing of Pompeii • Learn how wealthy Romans lived 2,000 years ago on an excursion to Pompeii, one of the richest archaeological sites in the world. When neighboring Mount Vesuvius erupted in A.D. 79, volcanic ash completely buried the Roman resort, perfectly preserving the minutiae of daily life. Now it is fully excavated, and you can see ruins of villas, ancient temples, and the Stabian Baths.

Arrival in Sorrento • Experience the unparalleled beauty of Italy's favorite resort, overlooking the Bay of Naples.

Day 8 Sorrento • Rome

Optional excursion to Capri • Cross the Bay of Naples to the captivating Isle of Capri. Travel by funicular to the town of Capri and board a cruise to see the most spectacular views of Capri's coast. You'll see the Arco Naturale, a majestic stone arch on the eastern cliffs, and the famous Faraglioni, three enormous, pale-ochre limestone colossi that loom out of the sea. When weather conditions do not permit a cruise, groups will visit the town of Anacapri instead.

Transfer to Rome • Continue on to bella Roma, the Eternal City. Here, Charlemagne was crowned emperor by the pope in A.D. 800.

Day 9 Rome

Guided excursion to Vatican City • Today, you will explore Vatican City, the world's smallest country. Begin at the Vatican Museum, where elaborate galleries filled with one artistic masterpiece after another lead you directly to the Sistine Chapel. Between 1508 and 1512, Michelangelo painted some of the world's finest pictorial images on the chapel's ceiling. This was his first attempt at working in fresco, which he did by standing up and craning backward from a scaffold. Next, tour St. Peter's Basilica, erected on the site where the saint was martyred. Enter the basilica under the watchful eyes of the brightly dressed Swiss Guard. Inside, admire Michelangelo's Pietà, the only sculpture he ever signed.

Guided sightseeing of Rome • Pass the grassy ruins of the ancient Forum Romanum, once the heart of the Roman Empire, and admire the enduring fragments of Rome's glorious past. It was here that business, commerce and the administration of justice once took place. Then visit the mighty Colosseum, Rome's first permanent amphitheater whose three tiers are approximately equal to a 12- to 15-story building. At one time, as many as 50,000 cheering spectators would flock to watch gladiator battles unfold inside. During the staged fights here, as many as 10,000 slaves, prisoners and volunteers were killed. Persecuted Christians were also murdered—spectators saw them mauled by lions. After A.D. 404, gladiator battles ended, but animals were still massacred in the name of sport until the 6th century.

Guided walking tour of Rome • Continue on to the legendary Trevi Fountain and make sure to toss in a coin to ensure your return to Rome. Then view the Pantheon, one of the best-preserved ancient buildings in the city, commissioned by the Emperor Hadrian around A.D. 120. This temple to “all the gods” sports the second-widest dome in Rome. It was built using the exact proportions of an egg! Finish off in the Piazza Navona, the popular square where you will see Bernini's impressive Fontana dei Quattro Fiumi.

Day 10 Home

Return home • Your tour director assists with the transfer to the airport, where you'll check in for your return flight home.

EXTENSION

Day 10 Rome

Guided Walking Tour of Trastevere and Janiculum • Enjoy a stroll through this quaint area of Rome, where the buildings snuggle against each other and the smell of garlic hangs in the air from local trattorias that set up tables along the cobblestone streets. Trastevere (Latin for “across the Tiber”) is, as one would guess, just across the Tiber River and a lively nightspot for the young and hip. Check out the top of Janiculum Hill, which offers some of the best views of the city. You'll also see the memorial dedicated to those who died in the 1849 battle against the French and the water-spurting Acqua Paola, created from leftover marble from the Roman Forum. Pass the Villa Doria Pamphili, a 1650 park, before heading to the Passeggiata del Gianicolo where you'll hear cannon fire daily at noon.

Guided excursion to the Catacombs and the Appian Way • Take a guided excursion to Rome's outlying catacombs, Christian burial grounds that date from the 2nd through 5th centuries. As you visit these mysterious burial chambers of popes and saints, keep your eyes out for early Christian art. Then journey down the ancient Appian Way, the most celebrated highway of the Roman Republic. Constructed in 312 B.C., the Appian Way led southward from Rome to Capua, and eventually to Brundisium (now Brindisi). Continue on to the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls, the second-largest church in the city of Rome, next to St. Peter's. On the basilica's peripheral walls, hang circular portraits of each pope. There is space for only seven more portraits, and legend says that once the walls fill up the world will end.

Day 11 Ostia Antica • Rome

Guided sightseeing of Ostia Antica • Today, take a half-day excursion to explore the ruins of Ostia Antica, a former Roman port city on the Tiber river. Founded in the 3rd century B.C., Ostia was the very first Roman colony. Stroll amidst the ancient baths, temples, and villas of this picturesque setting.

Free time in Rome • This afternoon, you'll have free time to make your own discoveries of Rome—you might wish to focus on museums, cathedrals, or finding the perfect gelato.

Day 12 Departure

Return home • Your tour director assists with the transfer to the airport, where you'll check in for your return flight home.
