BE PART OF THE SOLUTION

“To deny people their human rights is to challenge their very humanity.” — NELSON MANDELA

What do you consider your human rights to be? The right to an education? The right to individuality? Freedom from discrimination? When people treat each other with dignity and respect, human rights become second nature. But when people are denied basic and fundamental freedoms, what is our responsibility? How can we create the condition for peace through mutual respect and understanding?

These are the questions we will examine at our 2016 Global Student Leaders Summit, Exploring Human Rights, in The Hague, Netherlands. This extraordinary event combines an educational tour and two-day leadership conference in The Hague, the “judicial capital of the world.” You will learn from world-renowned experts and work together with peers from the United States and Europe to design and present your own solution to human rights issues.

What to expect on your Summit

Immersive Travel

Your tour of The Hague, Brussels, Paris and Geneva brings the Human Rights theme to life as you gain knowledge and hands-on experience through cultural and education-focused activities.

Thought Leadership

World-renowned speakers and human rights experts lead discussions and workshops to inspire and educate you. Past speakers have included Al Gore, Jane Goodall and Sir Ken Robinson. Keynote speakers for the 2016 Europe Summit will be announced in the fall of 2015.

Design Thinking

Working in small international teams, you will learn the design thinking process—a creative problem-solving technique used by companies like Apple and Google—and then use it to propose your own solutions to today’s human rights challenges.

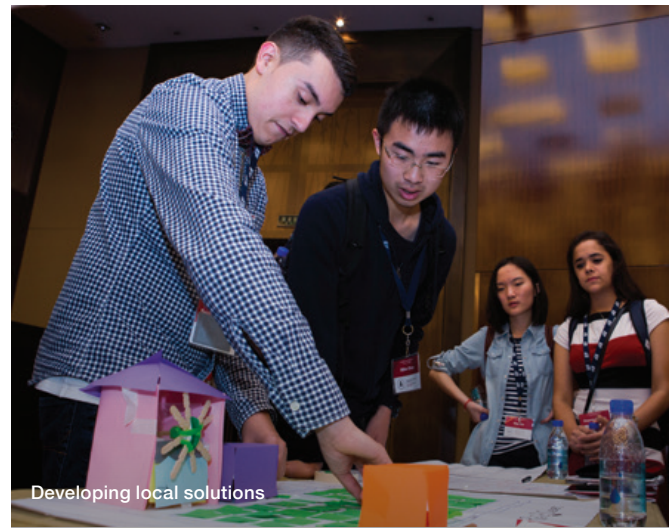

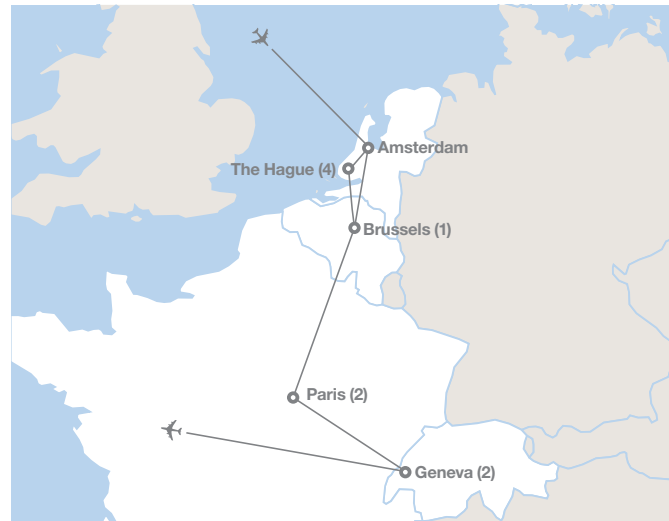

4

Online Learning

weShare, our online learning platform, gives you a place to research, reflect and share how you plan to impact local change as part of your final project. You can even earn high school credit.

Itinerary

June 22–July 2, 2016

Days 1-2: Amsterdam / The Hague

Fly overnight to Amsterdam and meet your Tour Director at the airport. Then transfer to The Hague, seat of the Dutch government.

Day 3: The Hague

Get acquainted with The Hague today and learn why it's the "City of International Peace and Justice." You'll visit the 19th century Peace Palace, a symbol of the global peace movement and home to the International Court of Justice and the permanent court of arbitration.

You'll also explore the Humanity House, a museum established by the Red Cross to increase understanding and awareness of humanitarian issues. Creative exhibits allow you to explore human rights issues, reflect on your own personal freedoms and consider ways you contribute to a life of peace and free will.

Days 4-5: The Hague

The leadership conference begins as you connect with students from all over the world in this inspiring and innovative setting. Over the course of two days you will hear from world-renowned keynote speakers, work with local and global experts, and collaborate with peers in small international teams. You will learn the design thinking process to develop solutions to today's human rights challenges and be inspired to take action back home.

Day 6: Amsterdam / Brussels

Travel to Amsterdam, where you'll explore the city's charming bridges and canals on a walking tour. You'll also visit the Anne Frank House. Step inside the 500-square-foot secret annex where young Anne and her family hid from Nazi occupiers for more than two years, until their capture in 1944. Anne's diary has been published in more than 60 languages around the world, a vivid reminder of Jewish persecution. Then continue to the Belgian capital of Brussels.

Day 7: Brussels / Paris

This morning, visit the European Commission, the executive body of the European Union, and learn about how the EU actively promotes and defends human rights.

Then travel to Paris, where you'll be introduced to the city on a Seine river cruise. Cap your day with a visit to the iconic Eiffel Tower.

Day 8: Paris

Visit UNESCO, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, for an inside look at how this global agency uses education and international collaboration to promote peace and security. Established in 1945, UNESCO now has 145 member States.

Then experience the Centre Pompidou. Home to the Musée National d'Art Moderne, the largest museum for modern art in Europe, Centre Pompidou's high-tech architecture of brightly colored exposed pipes and beams drew both adulation and criticism when it was completed in 1977. The multicultural complex is also home to IRCAM, a center for music and acoustic research, and a vast public library, providing a variety of diverse educational discoveries around every corner.

Day 9: Geneva

Travel by TGV train to Geneva, a global center of diplomacy and home to more international organizations than any other city in the world. Begin your exploration of the sites of Geneva on a guided walk through the city.

Day 10: Geneva

Visit the United Nations office in Geneva. Located in the Palais des Nations, which was home to the League of Nations until 1938, it hosts unique collections of art and knowledge—a "living museum" donated by governments and individuals as expressions of their commitments to improving human rights, international peace and the well-being of the world's people.

Day 11: Depart for home

Return home, prepared to be part of the solution.
