

GLOBAL LEADERSHIP SUMMIT:
THE IMPACT OF SPORTS & WELLNESS

Greece & Leadership Conference

Welcome to Greece—a country of historical figures, iconic landscapes, and athletic legends. (Not to mention feta cheese.) Greece gave the world the Olympics back in 776 B.C., and its legacy has endured to this day. From Athens to Olympia, walk through history as you explore the ruins where these global games first took place. Consider how the Olympics have evolved over time into more than just feats of strength—they give nations a common goal and sports a greater purpose. End your trip in Berlin, where you'll continue to discover The Impact of Sports & Wellness from a global perspective with other students and teachers during a three-day leadership conference.

13 DAY TOUR: JUNE 29–JULY 11, 2022

The Impact of Sports & Wellness

For centuries, sports have helped people build resilience and the power to collaborate—but more than that, they've built bridges within communities and between cultures. It's just one way the world approaches wellness: a deeply personal, yet universal topic. Our upcoming Global Leadership Summit will explore The Impact of Sports & Wellness, from what people eat and think to how we care for ourselves and stay active. Let's come together to better understand the global focus on well-being and our evolving thoughts on how to achieve it.

Day 1: Fly overnight to Greece

Day 2: Athens

- Meet your Tour Director at the airport in Athens, a city as beautiful as it is ancient and home to the first modern Olympic games. From long jump to tennis, many of the athletic activities we enjoy today have been influenced by Greece's rich sports history.
- Start your stay off with a walking tour of the Plaka district, the oldest neighborhood in Athens, and Syntagma Square.

Day 3: Athens

- See the city's Olympic Stadium, its central square, and the Acropolis with an expert local guide.
- Visit the Acropolis Museum, home to ancient ruins and prehistoric artifacts.
- Show off your moves during a traditional Greek dancing lesson. Though it's not one of the original ancient sports, dance plays a huge role in Greek culture.

Day 4: Athens

- Learn about the history of ancient sports—many of which are still popular today—during a group activity.
- Visit the Temple of Olympian Zeus, head of the 12 Olympian gods that resided atop Mount Olympus.
- See where the first modern Olympics were hosted at the Panathenaic Stadium (it's also famous for being the only stadium in the world made entirely of marble).

Day 5: Athens | Corinth | Mycenae | Epidaurus | Argolida

- Travel to the Peloponnese region of Greece via the Corinth Canal, which separates the Peloponnese from the Greek mainland (and makes for a great photo stop).
- Visit the Ancient Theatre at Epidaurus and the Acropolis of Mycenae with expert local guides.

Day 6: Argolida | Nafplio | Olympia

- Travel to Olympia via Nafplio and Kyparissia.
- Explore the seaside town of Nafplio, the first capital of the modern state of Greece, and visit the Palamidi Fortress, which offers views of the crystalline Argolic Gulf.
- Arrive in Olympia, home of the original Olympic games.

Day 7: Olympia

- Take an expertly guided tour of Olympia, channeling the energy, excitement, and comradery of the Olympic games.
- Visit the Olympia site, an archaeological area where the games were first held that contains the ruins of training areas, temples, and a stadium.
- Explore the Olympia Museum, dedicated to ancient and modern games, to learn more about the findings and significance of the site.
- Visit the Museum of Archimedes to learn about early Greek technology.
- Channel your inner-Olympian during a mini-Olympic games on the ancient site.

Day 8: Olympia | Athens

- Travel back to Athens and greet the ancient city like a (really) old friend.
- Enjoy some free time exploring Greece's capital city.
- Savor the flavors of Greece during a traditional dinner. Then, link arms for a night of music, dancing, and smashing plates. This time-honored tradition brings Greece's theatrical culture to life in all the best ways.

Day 9: Athens | Berlin

- Fly to Berlin. Known for vibrant art and sustainable practices, this progressive city also has strong ties to sports and wellness. In addition to the 1936 Olympics, Berlin hosted the 2006 FIFA World Cup Final and is home to the annual Berlin Marathon.

Day 10: Berlin | Leadership Conference

- Take an expert-led tour of Berlin to see the Brandenburg Gate, Kurfürstendamm, and remains of the Berlin Wall.
- Kick off your leadership conference experience.

Days 11–12: Leadership Conference in Berlin

The conference continues as you connect with other students and educators in this inspiring and innovative setting. Over the course of the conference, you'll hear from world-renowned speakers, work with local and global experts, and collaborate with peers in small international teams. Using the design-thinking process, students will develop solutions related to well-being.

Day 13: Depart for home

Head to the airport with more knowledge of what motivates you and what matters to others, along with the skills needed to make a difference back home.

From 566 B.C. to the 3rd century A.D., the Panathenaic Games were held in the now historic Panathenaic Stadium.

JOIN A GLOBAL COMMUNITY. MAKE A LASTING IMPACT.

EF Global Leadership Summits help today's students become tomorrow's leaders. It's immersive travel, meets three-day student leadership conference, meets change you can see and feel—and it doesn't stop there.

Each Summit has a unique theme that challenges students to tackle a significant global issue. This programming goes hand-in-hand with specially designed educational tours, where students will experience eye-opening destinations from an entirely new perspective.

So, what does learning look like for students at an EF Summit?

- Finding what motivates you. Explore global topics alongside world-renowned speakers and while attending expert-led workshops.
- Discovering what matters to others. Collaborate in international teams to prototype innovative solutions to global challenges. The top teams will pitch their ideas on stage to earn a spot in the Nobel Prize Museum in Stockholm, Sweden.
- Using it all to make a difference. Bring these lessons home with you to create positive change in your own community. You can also further deepen your Summit experience by enrolling in an exclusive online course through Southern New Hampshire University that will earn you three transferable college credits.

When you join a Global Leadership Summit, you join an awesome and inclusive community of global citizens. Let's come together to see what we're capable of.
